

Dinabhoomi

EXHIBITION ON INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND PANEL DISCUSSION ON DESIGN FROM WASTE CONDUCTED BY MIDAS

Exhibition and Panel Discussion on Industrial Developments held by students of Architecture from MIDAS near Mahabalipuram. MARG Institute of Design and Architecture Swarnabhoomi (MIDAS) an educational initiative to address the global need for high quality architects, by MARG, one of the fastest growing infrastructure companies in the country organized a two day architectural & cultural fiesta “TRIKONA 2012” on April 14 & 15, 2012 on the theme “Design from Waste”. GRK Reddy, Chairman & Managing Director, MARG Group inaugurated the function. Ganesh Ram, CEO, MARG Swarnabhoomi and Education Services, eminent architects like Ar. Benny Kuriakose, Prof. Mr. O. P. Bawane School of Architecture - RV College of Engineering, Bangalore, Ar. Soumitro Gosh – Mathew & Ghosh Pvt. Ltd, Bangalore, Ms. Monalika Anand, Architect – BIOME, Bangalore, Ar. Ranganath, Director - K S Ranganath Architects, Chennai have shared their views in the panel discussion. Over 1000 students from all over South India participated in this cultural fest and showcased their innovative architectural skills on the “Design from Waste” theme.

Over 1000 students from all over South India participated in this cultural fest. The curriculum at MIDAS is of International Standards and the Professors are from across the globe. This will enable every student to gain extensive knowledge with regard to international architectural standards and movements, right here in India.